

Candidate Rules and Regulations

You must:

- At the time of the test, provide proof of your identity (e.g. national identify card or passport). This ID must contain a number, a signature, a date of birth and a photograph. It is the responsibility of the candidate to prove their identity. The identity card or passport used at the time of the test must be the same as the one used on this registration form.
- Ensure mobile phones, pagers and other electronic devices are switched off and placed with personal belongings in the area designated by the test administrator. Any candidate who takes an electronic device into the test room may be disqualified.
- Notify the test administrator immediately if test day conditions in any way impede your performance.
- Agree to have your photograph taken immediately before the test begins.
- Agree to have your test audio-recorded.

You must not:

- Attempt to cheat or disrupt the test in any way.
- Use, or attempt to use, a dictionary, pager, spell-checker, electronic recorder or mobile phone for the duration of the test. Any candidate doing so will be disqualified.
- Talk to or disturb other candidates once a test has started.
- Smoke, eat or drink in the test room.
- Reproduce any part of the test in any format/medium, including attempting to audio-record or video-record any part of the test. Any candidate doing so will have their test results disqualified and be liable to prosecution.
- Remove any materials used during the test. This includes, but is not limited to, test papers, CDs and audio recording devices.

Appeals

Candidates who are not satisfied with either the test day administration or their test scores must appeal to the test centre. Appeals must be made to the centre in writing no later than one month after certificates have been despatched.

Disqualification warning

If you are caught breaking any of the candidate rules your test result will be invalid, you will not receive a test certificate, and notification of your disqualification will be sent to the national Civil Aviation Authority.

Limitation of Liability

The objective of this test is to assess your current English proficiency according to the ICAO scale. This assessment will be made entirely based on your performance during the test. No guarantees can be made or are implied about your future use of English.
